Thomas and Anna (Kuznia) Wilebski

Anna Kuznia was born September 13, 1890, in Section 7 of Wright Township in Marshall County, Minnesota, to Albert and Hedwig (Krzyszosiak) Kuznia. She spent her whole childhood in the Florian community. She met her husband-to-be, Thomas Wilebski, when he came to Florian, Minnesota, for a church doing. His sister, Mary, had married Anna's brother, Anton, in the very early 1900's.

On July 12, 1910, at the Assumption Catholic Church in Florian, Minnesota, Anna married Thomas Wilebski. They rode in the first car in Stephen, Minnesota, a Mordiek car -- a 1910 no top touring car -- to the church for their wedding. The wedding celebration at the Albert Kuznia homeplace lasted twenty-four hours.

Thomas and Anna [Kuznia] Wilebski -- 1910

Tom was the son of Frank and Antonette (Januczek) Wilebski from Orleans, Minnesota. Thomas was born on December 19, 1884, at Ivanhoe, Minnesota.

Following is a list of birth and death dates for Tom's parents, brothers, and sisters:

Frank Wilebski (father) was born November 15, 1854 and died July 4, 1928. Antonette (Januczek) Wilebski (mother) was born January 17, 1860 and died January 29, 1914. Joseph Wilebski was born February 19, 1882 and died in July of 1958. Mary Ann Wilebski (Kuznia) was born September 6, 1883 and died December 27, 1903. Frances Wilebski (Olsonoski) was born November 7, 1886 and died December 14, 1918. Sam Wilebski was born August 2, 1888 and died October 25, 1945. Peter Wilebski was born June 27, 1890 and died October 10, 1961. John Wilebski was born January 17, 1892, and died October 7, 1973. Anna Wilebski (Clark) was born June 11, 1893 and died January 12, 1964. Antonette Wilebski (Price) was born December 27, 1894 and died July 2, 1960. Stanley Wilebski was born April 28, 1897 and died April 23, 1958. Victoria Wilebski (Loby) was born October 27, 1898 and died September 28, 1965. Stella Wilebski (Kollinger) was born February 28, 1903 and died February 3, 1941.

After Anna and Tom were married, they moved to Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, where their first child, Helen, was born. While there, Tom sold beer from a wagon. Shortly after that, they moved to Kroze, Minnesota, where Frances was born. From there, they moved to Florian, Minnesota, and occupied a house where the Florian Community Hall now stands. Later, the house was moved to the Ben Kuznia farm, not quite a mile west of Florian. Some years later, it burned. In Florian, Tom was a blacksmith.

The Wilebski family then moved to a farm by Argyle, Minnesota. By Argyle, the family farmed and Tom did carpenter work, building barns and granaries. The farm home was later moved to the town of Argyle.

In 1940, they moved to 900 5th Avenue South, South St. Paul, Minnesota. Tom was a car repairman for the Rock Island Railroad for twelve years before retiring.

Thomas and Anna Wilebski

Anna spent her married life being a homemaker, wife, and mother.

Tom passed away from cancer on November 14, 1964. As of February of 1980, Anna is still a very sick woman. She became ill in July of 1978, and now her health is rapidly failing.

FELIX AND BARBARA [WILEBSKI] OGOREK
150 13th Avenue North
South St. Paul, Minnesota 55075

Barbara Ann Wilebski was born in 1924 in Argyle, Minnesota, to Thomas and Anna (Kuznia) Wilebski.

Felix Vincent Ogorek was born in 1916 to Frank and Frances (Wallenberg) Ogorek. His brothers and sisters are: Margaret, Mary Lager, Agnes (Mrs. Edward Wilebski), Victor, Edward, Lucille (Mrs. George Wilebski), Bernice, Leo, and Marcella Ceravsky.

We were married in South St. Paul, Minnesota, at Holy Trinity Church during World War II, on April 11, 1944. Felix was on leave from the Army Air Force. We honeymooned in Chicago and made our first home in Lake Charles, Louisiana. When Felix was sent to India and China, I moved back to South St. Paul and stayed with my parents. During that time, our son, Richard, was born in May of 1945. When the War ended and Felix arrived home, Dick was almost one year old. We bought our first home in South St. Paul. Felix worked at Swift and Company. Our daughter, Rosemary, was born in 1950. In 1954, we had our present home built, also in South St. Paul. I began working at Divine Redeemer Hospital in 1962 and still work there. When Swift's closed in 1969, Felix began working as a postal clerk for the St. Paul Post Office and is still with them.

The main events of our lives have centered around our two children, Dick and Rose. Both of them attended Catholic grade and high schools and graduated from universities. Besides being successful in their chosen careers, they have given us four beautiful grandchildren, who are our pride and joy.

After our children were married and living on their own, we began taking special vacations -- usually to Las Vegas. In 1980, we went to the Caribbean. A special family event of ours is an annual weekend of camping. We are thankful that life has been good to us.

FLOYD AND ROSE [WILEBSKI] DEIMAN
1114 McCammon
St. Paul Park, Minnesota 55071

Rose Ann Wilebski was born August 10, 1928, in Marshall County, Minnesota, to Thomas and Anna (Kuznia) Wilebski. As a child, I lived on our farm by Argyle, Minnesota. When I was fourteen, we moved to South St. Paul, Minnesota. I babysat for a crippled boy for two years, then went to work at Armour Meat Packing Plant, where I worked until 1950.

On May 28, 1949, at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in South St. Paul, I married Floyd Francis Deiman. He is the son of Herman and Teresa (Smith) Deiman of St. Paul, Minnesota. He was born September 8, 1926, in St. Paul. He has nine brothers and sisters: Robert of St. Paul, Minnesota; Truman of New Brighton, Minnesota; Henry, who passed away in 1979; Helen Girard of Long Island, New York; Gladys Abraham of Gaylord, Minnesota; Patricia Deiman of Silver Springs, Maryland; Howard of Chicago, Illinois; Vincent of Phoenix, Arizona; and Herman of St. Paul Park, Minnesota.

We have eight lovely children, three daughters and five sons, of whom we are very proud. Judy is married to Ron Halterman. Our second child, James, is married to Lynne Jones. Gregory was born May 21, 1953, and will soon be marrying Lesa Ann Alexander, his high school sweetheart. Our third son, Jeffrey, is married to Linda Franke. On August 30, 1959, our fourth son, Gary, was born. He will be making a trip to Alaska in August of 1980, where he may settle if he finds a job. Our last son, Tim, was born July 25, 1960. He will soon marry Debra Williams. After one daughter and then five sons, it was really great to end with two daughters. Patricia was born to us on January 20, 1965, and will be starting Park Senior High School in the fall of 1980. Almost eight years later, December 18, 1972, our last child, Ann, was born. Coming to us later in life, she has been a great joy. In 1980 she will be in second grade at Pullman Elementary School.
